

Child Safeguarding - Risk Management – Easy Read

What is this about?

- How CatholicCare Wollongong will act when around children and young people.

- How CatholicCare Wollongong will keep children and young people safe.

Why did CatholicCare Wollongong make this?

- To make sure everyone knows how to keep children and young people safe.

What is a risk?

- The chance that something bad will happen.

What risks has CatholicCare Wollongong spotted and what will CatholicCare Wollongong do?

- People might believe a grown up over a child or young person.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will make sure they take everything children and young people say very seriously.

- Children and young people don't feel brave enough to talk about someone hurting them.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will help children and young people feel brave enough to talk about someone hurting them.

- Families don't know how to tell us about someone hurting a child or young person.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will make sure everyone can talk to us about things that make them feel unsafe or sad.

- All the different people in the community are not thought about enough.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will think of everyone in the community and make sure they can talk to us too.

- Not everyone knows about keeping children and young people safe.

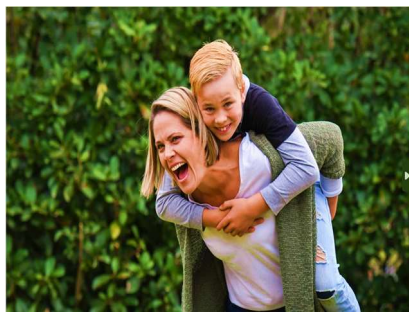

- CatholicCare Wollongong will make sure everyone that works at CatholicCare Wollongong learns how to keep children and young people safe.

- Not everyone's voices and ideas are heard.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will listen to everyone's ideas and voices.

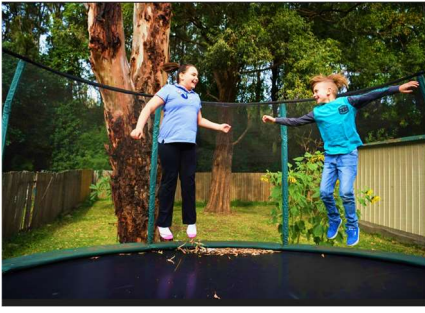

- People don't know how to tell if a child or young person is hurt.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will make sure everyone knows how to tell if a children or young person may be hurt.

- People might hurt children and young people online.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will make sure people know how to be safe online.

- People don't know about what could go wrong.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will learn about what could go wrong and will learn from any mistakes.

- People don't know how CatholicCare Wollongong will help children and young people safe.

- CatholicCare Wollongong will make sure everyone knows how CatholicCare Wollongong can help keep children and young people safe.

What are the rules?

- Spot all the risks to children and young people.

- Check how bad the risk is.

- Make sure we write it down.

- We will keep checking all our risks to make sure we are doing our best at keeping children and young people safe.